	 presents ... HOLIDAY HINTS FOR CAREGIVERS #4 Holiday Lights While many of us are dazzled by the bright blinking lights that come with the holidays, they may confuse or agitate a loved one with Alzheimer's. You may want to limit their use in your decorating and avoiding locations where they are used extensively.		 "Alzheimer's may have changed the LOVE that you share, but it can't ever will never, have the power to ever completely erase it."		7:00 Gentle Waking 8:30 Breakfast Time 9:30 Active Living 10:30 Visit w/ Cassandra 12:00 Creative Expression 12:30 Lunch Time 1:30 Visit with Jodie 2:30 Transition Time 5:30 Dinner Time 7:00 Kick Back and Relax	7:00 Gentle Waking 8:30 Breakfast Time 9:30 Active Living 12:00 Creative Expression 12:30 Lunch Time 2:30 Transition Time 4:30 Visit with Nurse 5:30 Dinner Time 7:00 Kick Back and Relax
